

How to Plan for Rising Health Care Costs

It is no surprise that Health Care Costs have been on the rise. Below are a few interesting points from Fidelity Advisor:

- It is estimated that the average couple will need $280,000 in today's dollars for medical expenses in retirement, excluding long-term care.
- Health care continues to be one of the largest expenses in retirement.
- To help fill a gap in saving for health care expenses, consider increasing contributions to your tax-advantaged accounts, especially HSAs (if you have one), which enable tax-free spending on health care in retirement.* *HSA contributions, earnings, and distributions used to pay for qualified medical expenses are tax free for federal income tax purposes. Officially, the Atlantic hurricane season starts on June 1 and will run until November 30th. In the Eastern Pacific Ocean, hurricane season begins May 15 and ends November 30th, according to the National Weather Service. However, most of these storms hit during peak hurricane season between August and October, on both coasts, according to the National Weather Service's Climate Prediction Center.

Hurricane scientists at Colorado State University are predicting a slightly above-average Atlantic hurricane season in 2018, they announced on April 5th.

Garden Indoors All Year

Seniors have various alternatives for indoor gardening. The easiest, of course, is to set a potted plant in a south-facing window. But many older Americans don't have a sunny window, or can't bend down to tend to plants. Eldergrow offers a unit that is accessible for anyone, including those using a wheelchair. The mobile unit can travel around a senior housing facility, with locking wheels to temporarily or permanently keep it in place (www.eldergrow.org). Eco-friendly grow lights are safe and energy efficient, while a 4-by-2-foot bed offers space for various plants. Founder Orla Concannon, developed the startup to satisfy a graduate course requirement after a stint as marketing director for Aegis Senior Living, where she saw the disappointment and sadness of residents who missed gardens they had to leave behind. The company has been growing since a September 2015 launch, with a presence in six states. The company offers three ownership models: 'rent, buy or rent to own', the most popular option. In addition, Eldergrow can provide evidence-based horticulture therapy using a subscription-based curriculum. "It's an all-inclusive horticulture therapy program," Concannon says. "Our team of educators bring fresh energy into the community as well as expertise about the plants. We're building relationships with the residents."

If you're looking for a simpler system without the educational component, try Fresh Square Countertop Growing Units for easy indoor gardening (www.fresh-square.com). Each unit measures 20 inches wide by 14 inches deep and stands 20 inches tall to include grow lights. There's no bending over, since the units sit on your counter, and their unique watering system allows you to go on vacation or even forget about plants for up to three weeks.

Rosie's

lighter RECIPE CORNER

June is National Iced Tea Month
 So let's make some TEA!

INGREDIENTS

Coconut Lime Iced Tea

2 black tea bags
 1/2 lime, thinly sliced
 3 cups coconut water, heated
 raw honey, optional

Iced Peach Ginger Tea

1 peach, pitted and sliced
 2 green tea bags
 4 ginger coins
 3 cups hot water
 raw honey, optional

INSTRUCTIONS

Coconut Lime Iced Tea

Add the black tea bags and sliced lime to a 1 quart mason jar or pitcher.

Pour heated coconut water into the mason jar, and allow to steep for 15 minutes. Then, remove the tea bags. Place into the fridge to completely chill for 3-4 hours for the flavors to release.

Iced Peach Ginger Tea

Add the sliced peach and green tea bags to a 1 quart mason jar or pitcher.

Skewer the sliced ginger coins on a toothpick, if desired, to make them easier to remove later, and then add them to the jar.

Pour the hot water into the mason jar, and allow to steep for 15 minutes. Then, remove the tea bags. Place into the fridge to completely chill for 3-4 hours for the flavors to release.

TRIVIA ANSWER

Dr. Sally Ride, a 32-year old physicist and pilot, became the first American woman in space, beginning a six-day mission aboard the space shuttle Challenger, launched from Cape Canaveral, FL.
