The way we care *never will.

WELCOME DEBBIE!!

We want to give a big WELCOME to Debbie Priebe, Walter's wife, whom some of you have met in the past. She's done our accounting for years and is now serving as assistant to Walter, as well. She comes from an extensive background of customer service, as a Legal Assistant. She is very excited to work with you all in the future. Welcome to Priebe Investment Plans Debbie!

READ THIS BEFORE FILING YOUR TAXES

The IRS made multiple updates when revising Form 14457, Voluntary Practice Preclearance Request. But one of the most important additions that taxpayers should take note of this year is an expanded section on reporting virtual currency. Virtual Currency, which includes cryptocurrency, is taxable, and taxpayers may have to report the sale, exchange, or use of virtual currencies on their tax returns. This has been one of the most common errors made in recent tax seasons. So make sure you get your tax forms from your cryptocurrency investments!

RECIPE CORNER

Irish Soda Bread

1 and $\frac{3}{4}$ cups buttermilk
1 large egg
4 and $\frac{1}{4}$ cups all purpose flour, plus more for your hands and counter
3 Tablespoons granulated sugar
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon salt
5 Tablespoons unsalted butter, cold and cubed
1 cup raisins

1 Preheat oven to 400° F. Grease any pan shape you'd like and line with parchment paper. Can also use a cast iron skillet or an uncovered Dutch oven.

2 Whisk the cold buttermilk and egg together. Set aside. Whisk the flour, sugar, baking soda, and salt together in a bowl. Cut in the butter using a pastry butter or a fork until the butter is pea-sized crumbs. Stir in the raisins. Pour crumbly dough onto a lightly floured work surface. With floured hands, work the dough into a ball as best you can, then knead for about 30 seconds or until all the flour is moistened. If the dough is too sticky, add a little more flour.

3 Transfer the dough to the prepared pan. Using a very sharp knife, score an X into the top. Bake until the bread is golden brown and center appears cooked through, about 45 minutes.

4 Remove from the oven and let cool on a wire rack for 10 minutes. Serve warm.
